W.P. No. 1469 of 2007 (S/S)
With
Stay App. No. Nil /07

Hon. P.C. Pant, J.

Heard Mr. D.S. Mehta, learned counsel for the petitioner and Mrs. Farida Siddique, learned Central Government Counsel for respondents No. 1 to 5.

By means of this wit petition, the petitioner has challenged the order dated 21.09.2007, copy of which is Annexure-11 to the writ petition, whereby the petitioner, a mumber of Indo Tibettan Border Police, has been transferred from S.H.Q. KMN Bareilly to the 3rd Battalion of I.T.B.P., Bareilly.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner has come from field/hard area to Bareilly on his representation, only in the month of May 2007, and now, he has been transferred to such a Battalion which is likely to move from Bareilly,

Having Heard leaned counsel for the petitioner and learned Central Government Counsel for respondents No.1 to 5, this Court finds that neither the impugned order suffers from malice, nor arbitrariness nor is it against the rules.

Therefore, this writ petition is dismissed in limine with the observation that the petitioner may make representation for redressal of his grievances to the authorities concerned.

(Stay Application also stands dismissed, accordingly).
